FOREWORD

Since nearly every person of whom the compiler has made enquiries has cheerfully given all information he had regarding the Garrison family, it would be impracticable to list the names of all who have supplied information for this compilation. To all of them I am very grateful. To the following I am especially indebted: to Mrs. Sarah Terry Warren, for my first family information, read to me from her old family Bibles and notes--now lost--only a few weeks before her death in June, 1941; to Doctor and Mrs. Robert N. Buchanan, for their suggestions; encouragement, and early sharing of their wide background knowledge of Sumner County families; to Virginia MacKenzie Ritter, for her many documented notes, obtained in long hours of searching records, looking into cemeteries, and visiting distant family connections; to Wilda Jane Garrison Blackmore, for assistance furnished and for facts from family records and her knowledge of Sumner County history; to Cousin Edna Ethel Allen, one of the very first to answer my queries; to her brothers and sisters, for their interest and hospitality; to Cousin Anna Belle Garrison Green, who called from a sick-bed to offer early encouragement; to Mary Frances Garrison Cornelius and her brother, Harry Jackson Garrison, for their enthusiastic interest and appreciated visits; and to Mrs. Grace Ottman, for her patience and skill in transcribing my much corrected, lined, and interlined final draft of this compilation.

While data in census records have been used when necessary, family records giving exact data have been given precedence. As in every genealogical table, errors have crept in, some no doubt being my mistakes in transcription.

The numbering system used identifies descendants in relation to John Garrison and to the line of descent from him. It also permits grouping individuals in the same generation without danger of confusion on account of duplication of names. Numbers of individuals not now included can be inserted in the series without using letters or exponents. Roman numerals are used only for the tenth and following children of an individual. For example, see p. 6, No. 2x1 is the first child of No. 2x, who is the tenth child of No. 2. An eleventh child of No. 2 would have been No. 2xi.

The Garrison Name

Authorities differ as to the derivation of the name of Garrison. The latest consulted states that Garrison is a Welsh and English name, meaning "the son of Garry, a pet form of Garrath (spear, firm). (1) Another states that the name is generally believed to be derived from the German baptismal name of Gerret, combined with the suffix son. Yet another states that the name is a corruption of the place name of Garrison, that of a town in Yorkshire, England, and that it was taken as a surname by a family which resided in that place. The first and second theories seem more probable. Like most names in early records, the spelling varies considerably; but in this country the name has had its present form since 1700 or earlier. (2)

John Garrison of Sumner County, Tennessee

John Garrison of Sumner County, Tennessee, was born in Pennsylvania about 1760. (1) He came to Sumner County before the end of 1797 and was described as "of Sumner County" when on 28 December 1797 he bought land there. (2) He married twice. The name of his first wife is not known. In Sumner County on 14 December 1816, he married as his second wife, Rhoda Hampton (3), who was born in South Carolina, ~~1782-92~~ (4) and died in Sumner County ~~1860-1870~~. (5) 14 Oct 1796
2 Nov 1862.

By his first wife John Garrison had one son, John, and possibly other children. By his second wife, Rhoda Hampton, he had five sons, Hampton, Henry H., Wade, Wesley, and Pleasant. He died "July 3rd, 1853, Aged about 93 years." (6)

John Garrison's ancestry has not been determined; but it is discussed in Appendix A.

(1) Although John Garrison's age in 1850 was recorded as 100 in the Federal Census of 1850 for Sumner County, Tennessee (No. 86, District No. 10, 25 Oct 1850,) it is considered more reasonable to accept the facts his family had recorded after his death three years later.

(2) He bought on that date of Edward Gwin, 133 acres for $133, Sumner Co., Deed Book A, p. 80. This is also recorded in Sumner County Court Minutes, Jan. Term, 1798, Vol. 3, p. 43.

(3) Early Sumner County Marriage Records, 1787-1838, p. 63.

(4) The Census for Sumner County in 1850 (See Note (1) above), gives 62 as the age of Rhoda Garrison; while that for 1860 gives only 68. In this instance, the compiler is inclined to accept the age given in 1850; for Victorian ladies were reluctant to admit that they had aged as rapidly as the calendar would have them do.

(5) In 1860 Rhoda was living as a member of the household of her youngest son, Pleasant Garrison. She was not there in 1870. Both the 1850 and 1860 Census Reports gave her state of birth as South Carolina.

(6) Date of death is from the inscription on John Garrison's tombstone in the Old Beech Cemetery of the Beech Presbyterian Church (Organized 1798) on the Long Hollow Pike beyond Shackle Island, which is near Gallatin, the county seat of Sumner County. His second wife, Rhoda Hampton, was buried at his side. In July 1960, the compiler, with his cousins, Emma Garrison Garrett, and her grandson, Harold Edward Creekmore, visited John Garrison's grave. They observed that the headstone was still in place, but that his wife's had disappeared. The socketed base for Rhoda Garrison's grave was found under the surface, and the footstone, carved with the initials "R.G.", was in its proper place. In this cemetery, some yards farther away from the pike, are many graves of descendants of John Garrison, including Garrisons, Parkers, and Dorries.

✓ The headstone has been found, restored, and replaced. It shows Rhoda Hampton Garrison was b. 14 Oct 1796 and d. 2 Nov 1862. - H.R.G. 9 Jan 1964.

(1) John G. Garrison must have been Gomer. Marriage bond entries show that when John married Nancy Preston on 7 Dec 1831, Gomer Garrison was the bondsman for the marriage bond; and when Gomer married Priscilla Johnson on 4 July 1829, John Garrison was the bondsman. - Early Sumner County Marriage Bonds, 1787-1830, p. 187. In 1790 in the same street in Philadelphia, not many houses away from John Garrison, Sr., lived a Valentine Gomer; perhaps a daughter of his married one of the "2 females" in John Garrison's family at that time and Gomer Garrison was John Jr.'s cousin or nephew. - First Census of Pennsylvania, Philadelphia County. The younger John Garrison was still "Jr." in 1857, although his father had died in 1853. - Sumner County Court Minute Book, 1853-1858, p. 360. Here his widow, Nancy, in January, 1857, was appointed guardian of his daughters, Elizabeth, Harriett, and Martha, with Tyree Garrison as security, op. cit., p. 261. Information as to John G. Garrison's children by his first wife has been found only in suit papers filed by Nancy Garrison for division or partition or sale of 130 acres owned jointly by her and the defendants, named as Richard A. Garrison, Mary Murray, "non-residents and minors," Nancy Dorris, Sarah Dorris, John Dorris, Isaac Dorris, (Sycuyay Charlton, Guardian ad litem) and minors, Harriett Garrison and Martha Garrison. - Sumner County Court Minute Book, 1858-1866, March Term, 1859, p. 52. To these defendants was added Mary Jane Dorris, op. cit., p. 64. Commissioners sold the property at public auction for $1170, allotting $233.32 to Nancy Garrison as her dower, the commissioners having found that amount "equitable" as Nancy was "about 50 years of age, of ordinary health and constitution." The buyers of the property were Richard Latimer, who had married the widow of Henry H. Garrison (No. 3), and R. B. Dorris, assumed to have been John, Jr.'s son-in-law. Op. Cit., p. 83.

65. Pleasant L. Garrison, 23 Jun 1864 - 19 Apr 1870. (7)

(1) Birth years are estimated from entries in the 1850 Census.

(2) The Minutes of the Beach Presbyterian Church, near Shackle Island, Sumner Co., Tenn., 1869-1899, Vol. 2, p. 51, mention the name of John Frazier Garrison on nearly every page from 51 to 101; and record his being made an elder of the church on 26 Dec 1886.

(3) Names are taken from Wesley Garrison's will, dated 1 May 1874 and probated in the July term of Court, 1874. It named as administratrix wife Sarah Garrison.- Sumner Co., Tenn. Will Book No. 4, 1870-1891, p. 87. Dates are calculated from ages shown for this family in the Federal Census for Sumner Co., Tenn., for 1870, 17th District, Family 57, p. 8. There the children are listed only by their initials, which in cases vary--no doubt owing to the difficulty of reading the dim record--from those of the names listed in the will; but they can be matched conclusively with the latter. The descendants of Wesley Garrison's children have not been traced.

(7) In the Census for 1870 a six-year-old girl, Pattie, is listed in the Pleasant Garrison household, but she is believed not to have been the child of Pleasant and Abigail Garrison. Their son, Pleasant L. Garrison, born in 1864, had died only in April of 1870. Pattie of the same age, probably was "the child they took to raise."

William Franklin Garrison owned and managed 750 acres in farm land until he began to curtail his operations in 1950. But he continued actively to manage smaller holdings; and in 1960, at the age of eighty-seven, was still as mentally and physically alert as most men half his age. He and his wife then lived just off the highway between Nashville and Gallatin. He d. Mar., 1963. - LRG

It seems to the compiler that something further should be said about Arthur Ernest Garrison and "Garrisonia," the beautiful estate he developed after he had lived in so many other places in the United States. In 1941, still grief-stricken by the loss of his only son, he told the compiler how he had yearned to come back and take over the old family home and improve it; how he had acquired adjacent land as it became available until he had 210 acres in one tract, a very sizable one for that part of Tennessee; how he kept on adding to the house. He said that the great square columns of the front veranda were made from trees he had bought from Abigail Merritt Garrison, the compiler's grandmother, whom he called "Aunt Abbie," as did so many of the Garrison descendants. The material having come from Garrison land, Arthur E. Garrison thought the columns made a more appropriate addition to the old Garrison home he was improving. He was a fine man, and his community recognized the fact by insisting on his occupying a community office over a period of many years. When last seen by the compiler in the spring of 1953, he was as friendly and as alert as ever, quite unchanged; and his brother, Will, was visiting him that afternoon. The two seemed much alike, very pleasant to know; both were persons one would be immensely proud to claim as kinsman.

APPENDIX A

Some Early Pennsylvania Garrisons

Search of Pennsylvania records has not been made to determine whether or not John Garrison of Sumner County, Tennessee, was the same as the John Garrison who was reported in the Census for 1790 as living on Third Street, West Side, Philadelphia, in that year. The Census reported no other John Garrison in all of Pennsylvania in 1790. But there were several of that name reported in Virginia, North Carolina, and South Carolina. (1)

Other Garrisons listed in the U. S. Census for Pennsylvania for 1790 were:

Benjamin	Garrison, Dauphin County,	p. 88
Charles	Garrison, Bucks County,	p. 48
Ephraim	Garrison, Luzerne County,	p. 148
Ephraim	Garrison, Northumberland County,	p. 186
Frederick	Garrison, Washington County,	p. 251
Joseph	Garrison, Northampton County,	p. 172
Joseph	Garrison, York County,	p. 282
Leonard	Garrison, Washington County,	p. 251
Margaret	Garrison, Chester County,	p. 63
Samuel	Garrison, Dauphin County,	p. 88
Wm.	Garrison, York County,	p. 275

The John Garrison who in 1790 lived in Philadelphia in "southwark Town, Third Street, West Side," was reported as having in his family, besides himself, 1 white male under 16 and 2 white females, including "hds. of families." These might have been John G. Garrison (b. 1780, N. C.), John Garrison's unidentified first wife, and possibly a daughter or niece, who do not show up in the John Garrison family lists after he went to Tennessee. Another peculiar circumstance is that in 1790 there lived on the same street in Philadelphia as John Garrison, a Valentine Gomer, whose list shows 2 white males under 16 and 1 female. In 1809, in Sumner County, when John G. Garrison was 29, he married, for the first time, apparently, Polly Brown; in 1829 he was surety on the bond of a Gomer Garrison and Priscilla Johnson; and in 1831, when John G. Garrison married Nancy Preston as his second wife, it was Gomer Garrison who was surety on his bond. (2) Surely there was a relationship between John G. Garrison and Gomer Garrison; and very likely Valentine Gomer was involved in the relationship.

After 1793 a John Garrison conveyed property in Orange County, North Carolina to a Joseph Dorris. (3) This has a special significance owing to the later intermarriages of descendants of John Garrison and Dorris in Sumner County, Tennessee.

A possible Pennsylvania ancestor might be Isaac Garrison, whose father was also an Isaac Garrison, and who was born 6 January 1738 in Philadelphia, twenty-two years before the birth of John Garrison of Sumner County. (4) The descendants of Isaac Garrison have not been traced by this compiler.

In 1743 Charles Garrison was a witness to the will of James Irwin, Philadelphia County. (5) Presumably over twenty-one when he was a witness, Charles would have been at least thirty-eight years of age in 1760, which was about the time John Garrison was born, and quite old enough to have been John's father. But no Charles has been found among John's descendants; though many traditional Garrison first names--John, Henry, Richard, Daniel--are on record as being among John's children and grandchildren. Charles Garrison's descendants have not been traced.

In September, 1758 a John Garrison was appointed ferryman of the Bethlehem ferry, but he was not re-appointed the following year. (6) He might well have been the same as the John Garrison of the County of Philadelphia, Frankford and New Hanover Townships, who in 1769 was taxed on 15 acres, 1 horse, and 2 cattle; tax, 4.6.8. (7)

Nicholas Garrison, Sr., who in time became "for many years a sea captain of repute," (8) was born on Staten Island in 1701. (9) He married first, before 1726, Christine Van Woglom (see Note 1, Appendix B) and by her he had two or more children, including Nicholas Garrison, Jr., born on Staten Island 18 June 1726, and Abraham Garrison, born on Staten Island in 1744. (8, 9) Nicholas Garrison, Sr. married as his second wife, in 1748 at Herrnhag, in Germany, Mary Ann Brandt, who was born 13 Feb 1708 in the vicinity of Berne, Switzerland. In 1763 he moved to Bethlehem, Pennsylvania to live in retirement. (8) There they died, Nicholas on 14 September 1781 and Mary Ann on 9 March 1790. (9) No children of the second marriage have been noted.

Nicholas Garrison, Jr. married 28 June 1758 Johanna Grace Parsons, born 28 November 1736. She was the daughter of William Parsons and his wife Johanna Christina Seidig, born in May, 1699. Nicholas, Jr. "possessed some skill in drawing and sketching, and executed several noted views of the Moravian settlements, which are much sought after by collectors." (8) In 1762, the year before his father came to Bethlehem, he moved to Philadelphia, where he engaged in business as a grocer on race street. Just before the occupation of Philadelphia by Howe's Army in 1777, Nicholas, Jr. fled with his family to Oldman's Creek, New Jersey, where they remained until the following summer. After 1780 they became residents of Berks County. (10)

The first child of Nicholas Garrison, Jr. and his wife Johanna Gratia (Grace) was John Nicholas Garrison, "born in Bethlehem on Monday," 26 October 1761. In 1764 John Nicholas Garrison was recorded as a child belonging to the Philadelphia Moravian congregation. His brother Friedrich had been born in 1763. (9)

John Garrison, the ferryman of Bethlehem in 1758, an adult then and in 1760 (or 1761?) when John Garrison of Sumner County was born, is not to be confused with the John Garrison of the West Part of Southwark (a township in Philadelphia) whose name appears in the lists in 1780, 1782, and 1783. (11) The latter, however, must be the John Garrison who in 1790 lived on Third Street, West Side, Southwark Township, Philadelphia; and he could have been John Garrison of Sumner County. Perhaps John Garrison of Sumner County early went to North Carolina, where his first son, John G. Garrison, was born about 1780, and where a John Garrison sold land in Orange County in 1793. In the meantime he may have returned to Philadelphia before 1790, and if he decided in the 1790's to move West, it was only natural for him to dispose of any real estate held in the East, including the land in Orange County, North Carolina. Possibly he went West by way of Kentucky, as some other Garrisons did, and arrived in Sumner County about the time Tennessee became a state. A John Garrison was a member of Hugh Caperton's Company of troops in Western Virginia in 1793. If this John was John Garrison of Sumner County, it might explain the vague family "tradition" that the latter came to Tennessee from Virginia. (11)

While the ferryman of Bethlehem could have been the father of John Garrison of Sumner County, perhaps he was a cousin or an uncle, if at all related. A bit of wishful thinking and the disregard of a discrepancy here and there permit one to consider that John Garrison of Sumner County and John Nicholas Garrison might be the same person.

For in Sumner County in 1820 there lived a William Garrison (26 - 45 years of age) who by 1860 at the recorded age of 82 was listed as William F. Garrison and as a member of the household of John Garrison's youngest son, Pleasant Garrison, with whom also resided Pleasant's mother, Rhoda Hampton Garrison. It is noted, too, that William F. Garrison was "born in Penn." (12) No record or family tradition that John Garrison had a son named William F. _____ Garrison having come to light, it might be assumed that this man was John's brother, William F(riedrich?).

In 1860 John Nicholas Garrison, b. 26 October 1761 (according to his baptismal record (9) if living would have been 99 years of age and his brother Friedrich (b. 1763) 97.

Now John Garrison of Sumner County, born in Pennsylvania, if born in October, 1760, would have been "about 93 years of age," as his tombstone states, when he died in July, 1853. His family quite likely believed he had been born in 1760: had not someone reported him to the census taker in 1850 as then 100? When he died three years later, the family searched their memories and decided that in July, 1853 he was only "about 93." Then, in 1860, Uncle William F. Garrison appeared to the family reporter as an old man, about 82. The compiler submits that he might have been as much as fifteen years older than reported. If so, his age would have been the same as that of Friedrich, the brother of John Nicholas Garrison. Very old men can seem much younger. In July, 1960, this writer saw a John Garrison descendant, who happened to be William Franklin Garrison, then aged 87, hop in and out of a car more quickly and with greater agility than could have been expected of many a man of less than fifty.

While it may be possible that John Nicholas Garrison was the same as John Garrison of Sumner County and that Friedrich, John Nicholas's brother, was the same as William F. Garrison, the brother of John Garrison of Sumner County, the compiler is reluctant to advance this theory. Not only are the threads of evidence pointing to John Nicholas Garrison extremely tenuous, but the religious leanings of the John Garrison descendants as a whole seem to indicate a Presbyterian or other Protestant early family background somewhat more liberal in religious attitude than that of the Moravians. One must not fail to consider the Isaac Garrison whose birth in 1738 was recorded in the register of the First Presbyterian Church of Philadelphia. Perhaps in time records will be found that will reveal the truth.

After this compilation was practically complete and in the hands of a typist, belated information was received possibly pointing to another Pennsylvania Garrison. Jessie Garrison Summers, No. 291, wrote that the father of her great grandfather, John Garrison of Sumner County, Tennessee, came from Ireland and that the Garrisons who came to Sumner County "came from Virginia and North Carolina."

Her grandmother Susan P. Johnson Garrison, second wife of Hampton Garrison, No. 2, Jessie Garrison Summers said had died at the home of Stephen Pleasant Garrison, No. 29, leaving a "shoving skillet" of black iron on three legs "which our great great grandfather brought from Ireland with him."

Since John Garrison of Sumner County was born in Pennsylvania about 1760, this family tradition of Irish ancestry could point to the Irish Quakers of Pennsylvania, of whom John Garrison (Garrettson) and his wife Content in 1738 were recorded as being present at the Newberry Meeting, having come from the Kenet Meeting. (13)

The primary purpose of this paper, however, was not to trace the ancestry of John Garrison of Sumner County, Tennessee, but to compile a list of his descendants. This has been done. The list of descendants it is believed should now be published and placed in the hands of descendant families; leaving search for ancestors to the future.

(1) It has been ascertained that John Garrison of Sumner County was not the Revolutionary War soldier of that name who served with the South Carolina Troops in the company commanded by the latter's brother, Captain Benjamin Garrisson [sic]. This John Garrisson of South Carolina was born in Mecklenburg Co., N. C. in 1758, moved to Tennessee in 1829, and was living in Wilson Co., Tenn. in 1832 and in Wilks Co. in 1840. - Pension application by John Garrisson of South Carolina, N. S. 3384, National Archives, Washington, D. C.

(2) Sumner County, Tennessee Marriage Bonds, 1787-1838. It must be admitted that in the marriage bond lists, John G. Garrison's name appears in 1809 as John Garrison, Jr. and in 1813, only as John Garrison. The initial "G" is taken from the listing of the family who in 1850 lived in Sumner County next to John and Rhoda Hampton Garrison and were named as John G. Garrison, aged 70, and his wife Nancy Preston, aged 45. It is not doubted that John, John, Jr., and John G. Garrison were the same. It is also interesting to note that in 1867, on 21 August, Daniel Garrison, son of John G. and Sarah Garrison, made a marriage bond to marry Matilda P. Sartin, daughter of Elisha Sartin, in Caswell County, North Carolina. (Cf. Caswell County, N. C. Marriage Bonds, p. 104.) This Daniel is not to be confused with Daniel Monroe Garrison, No. 35, who was only thirteen years of age in 1867 and married Sarah Jane Hunnicutt in 1880. Perhaps the John G. Garrison of Sumner County who married Polly Brown in 1809 and who had a nephew Daniel, had another nephew of his own name with a son named Daniel. There may have been children by the first wife of John Garrison, Senior, other than John G. Garrison, whose names are not known.

But it should be remembered that in each instance at the date of birth Tennessee was still part of North Carolina. In the now rather dim records, "Penn." can look very much like "Tenn."

APPENDIX B

Other Early American Garrisons (1)

From Richard Henry Garrison, grandson of John Garrison of Sumner County, Tennessee, and his second wife, Rhoda Hampton, his family understood that the Garrison family came to Tennessee from Virginia. Records consulted neither clearly support nor contradict this theory.

John Garrison of Sumner County, Tennessee, was born in Pennsylvania, according to the Federal Census for 1850. Where he was between 1790, when he may have been living in Philadelphia (2) and 1797, when he had become "of Sumner County," is not clear.

Notations regarding some early American Garrisons, while indicating no relationship between them and John Garrison of Sumner County, may be of interest in further study and research of his and other branches. Pointing out certain names, places, and dates should make it easier for the future student to include or exclude the possibilities of relationships.

Amos Garrison came from England about 1654 and settled in Northampton County, Virginia. (3) The names of George, Abel, and James Garrison appear in the marriage bonds for that county in 1785, 1775, and 1797.

In the Census for Virginia for 1790, a William Garrison appears in the lists for Albemarle County. Could he have been the same as William, brother of Dandridge Washington Garrison, and Captain William Garrison of New Jersey, mentioned on page 43 below?

Other early American Garrisons in Virginia were:

Abel Garrison,	Lincoln County
Archibald Garrison,	Northampton County
Elizabeth Garrison,	Accomac County
George Garrison,	Accomac County
John Garrison,	Hardy County
Jonathan Garrison,	Accomac County
Jonathan Garrison, Jr.,	Accomac County
Richard Garrison,	Accomac County
William Garrison,	Accomac County (4)

Other early Garrisons, some of whom were in the military service during the Revolutionary War, are mentioned here and there in The Daughters of the Revolution Magazine:

Abraham Garrison, Sr., "a Revolutionary soldier who married Maria Brower in 1734. MAS." (5)

Nehemiah Garrison was named as administrator of an estate in Loudon County, Virginia, 9 March 1784. (6)

A John Garrison in 1793 was a member of Hugh Caperton's Company in Western Virginia. (7)

From November, 1746, to March, 1770, a Paul Garrison appears in records as having lived in Southwestern Virginia and as having acquired and disposed of land on the Catawba River. (8)

A John and an Edmond Garrison are mentioned in records of Princess Anne County, Virginia, in the early 1800's. (9)

On 30 December 1819 a marriage bond was executed for John Garrison and Rebecca Petit in Norfolk County, Virginia. (10)

On 31 Feb [sic] 1826 a John Garrison was married to Salley Whitehurst by the Reverend Daniel Waters. (11)

A John Garrison on 22 December 1835 married Delitha Monday in Albemarle County, Virginia. (12)

All these references to John Garrisons of Virginia could hardly relate to the same person or even to persons in the same immediate family line. The repeated appearances of the name John with other Garrison first names, such as James, Albert, Ryland, and Austin, merely show that John was a favorite Garrison name, just as it was in many other families.

Ephraim Garrison lived in Farmersville, Virginia in 1867 and was uncle of Lucas Clark." AWC. (13)

In Rowan County, North Carolina on 12 Feb 1772, Thomas Garrison signed the marriage bond of John Garrison and Lucretia Vaune, the widow of "Michal Wahn." (Vaughn?) (14) In 1778 John and Thomas Garrison were on the tax rolls of Rowan County. (15) John's name does not appear in the Census for 1790 as a resident of Rowan County. Perhaps he had returned to Virginia, where he had been a private in the Virginia Militia during the Revolutionary War. (16)

Thomas Garrison died before 5 Nov 1806, when his will, made on 29 August 1805, was proved by John Teague. He left his wife Sarah his "plantation where I live while a widow & then . . . to Benjamin Kendall, Sr." His clothes he left to Solomon Kendall and Benjamin Kendall, Jr. (17)

"John and Arthur Garrison and Philip Weeks are mentioned in the list of Mecklenburg militia of North Carolina." Someone in 1927 was trying to discover whether or not Amy Garrison was a descendant of one of the two mentioned. Amy seems to have been of a New York family. (18)

Benjamin Garrison appears in long Bible records published in the D A R Magazine in 1936. (19)

To what is now Staten Island, New York, in 1658 Gerret and John Gerretson Garrison came from the Netherlands. Their descendants Anglicized their name as Garrison.

Early records of Staten Island Garrisons include those of the brothers Jacob and John Garrison, about 1691; those of Frederick, Christopher Lambert, and Segear Garrison, between 1698 and 1702; those of Hendrick or Henry Garrison, who was the father in 1732 of a son named Herman, who was the father of a son named John, who was the father of Herman, John Jr., George, and Garret Garrison; those of Charles Garrison, Sheriff of Staten Island in 1730; those of Isaac Garrison, who was the father in 1731 by his wife Maria Christopher, of a son named Christopher; those of Nicholas Garrison, who was the father in 1744 by his wife Christine Van Woglom, of a son named Abraham; those of Daniel Garrison, who was the father by his wife Mary, whom he married before 1755, of Charles, Jacob, Daniel, Catharine, and Mary; those of Adrianche Garrison, in 1763; and those of Jacob Garrison, who married Catharine Stimson about 1789.

Edward Garrison, living in Boston before 1660, was married that year to Joan Pullen. Their children have not been traced.

Joseph Garrison, said to have been of English birth, lived in Boston about 1750 and in 1764 married Mary, daughter of Daniel Palmer. They had issue of Hannah, Elizabeth, Joseph, Daniel, Abijah, Sarah, Nathan, Silas, and William, the last a cripple, who never married.

Abijah, third son of the first Joseph, above, went to live in Newburyport, Massachusetts, and was a sea captain in the West India and coasting trade. He married, before 1797, Frances Maria Lloyd, daughter of Andrew Lloyd, by whom he had Caroline, Mary Ann, James Holley, William Lloyd, and Maria Elizabeth.

Cornelius Garrison, born in 1756 in Alsace, came to America about 1775 and was a member of the French forces here at the close of the War. He settled in Hanover, Pennsylvania, where he left issue by his wife Mary, of Elizabeth, John, Mary, Rachel, Nancy, Jacob, and James.

John, son of Cornelius, removed to Dorrance, Pennsylvania, and left issue there by his wife, Catharine Mack, of Cornelius, Rebecca, and Ziba. He was probably the same as the John Garrison who appears in the tax lists of 1769 in the County of Philadelphia, Frankford and New Hanover Townships.

Jacob, son of the first Cornelius, married Rachel Rimer, by whom he had William, George, Silas, and Elizabeth, all of whom went west with their parents.

James, the other son of the first Cornelius, married Mary Wiggins, but his descendants have not been traced.

In the latter part of the 18th century the brothers Dandridge Washington and William Garrison came from North Germany and settled in New Jersey.

The descendants of the Garrisons mentioned above, and those of other Garrisons, have scattered to many parts of this country.

Serving in the Revolutionary War were Captain William Garrison of New Jersey; Lieutenants Abraham, Isaac, and Richard Garrison, of New York; Abraham, Corporal Bennet; Jacob, John, Joseph, Samuel, and William Garrison, of Massachusetts, and others.

Ephraim Garrison, born in New Amsterdam, N. J. in 1738, also served in the Revolutionary War. He married in 1764 Elizabeth Wates, by whom he had a son, John (1772-1865), who in 1794 married Rebecca Mills and died in Stilesville, <sup>Ind.</sup> Indiana. (20) He died in Cedar Rapids, Iowa

<sup>Ind.</sup> Joel Garrison, another soldier of the Revolutionary War, was born in 1760 in Cumberland County, New Jersey, married Sarah White, and died in 1835. By Sarah, who was his first wife, he had Josiah (b. 1803, m. 1st Abish Bolsky, b. 1807) and Phoebe Garrison (Knox) (1825-1863), who married Hiram Bland. He married 2ndly. Christiana _____, and had descendants in Indiana. (21)

2nd Lieutenant Isaac Garrison of the Orange County, N. Y. Regiment, was born in 1738 at Garrison's landing, N. Y., in 1763 married Elizabeth Covert, and in 1816 died in New York. Some of his descendants lived in St. Louis, Missouri. (22)

Private Isaac Garrison (1760 - 1826) of the 4th Regiment, New York State, was born in Ulster County, New York. (23)

Major Richard Garrison, Quartermaster in the Revolutionary War, was born in Westchester County, N. Y., where he died in 1803. (24) See - of + buried -

Private Samuel Garrison, who served in Captain Thomas Watkins' 9th Virginia Regiment, was born in 1745 in Hanover County, Virginia and died in 1799 in Fayette County, Kentucky. He had married Mary Alexander in 1767, whose descendant lived in Coffeyville, Kansas. (25)

A few of the many other Garrisons in the Revolution were Harmonius, Peter, and two Williams, the two both of New Jersey. (26) See - of + buried -

Mathias Garrison, a Revolutionary soldier who died in Warren, New Jersey in 1832, married Elizabeth Fortner, daughter of Benjamin Fortner (27)

Beginning in 1805, many Garrison marriages appear in the records of Albemarle, Virginia; but the names are not such as to hint at any relationship with the Garrisons of Sumner County, Tennessee. (28)

The Newberry Library of Chicago, Illinois, lists fifty-three United States titles for the Garrison Family in its Genealogical Index. A search of these titles should be made by anyone in determining the ancestry of John Garrison of Sumner County, Tennessee.

North Carolina marriage records list the following Garrison bonds in Caswell County:

Daniel Garrison, son of John G. and Sarah Garrison, and Matilda P. Sartin, daughter of Elisha Sartin, 21 August 1867.

Hall Garrison and Catherine Cantrell, 20 May 1809.

George Garrison, 25 November 1847. (29)

In Pennsylvania, other early Garrison marriages have been noted as follows:

In the marriage records of Christ Church, Philadelphia, Feb 4, 1720, Jacob Garrison and Mary Wallen; Jun 5, 1788, Mary Garrison and Robert Freestone.

In the marriage records of Swedes' Church, Philadelphia, 1750-1810, Sep 16, 1760, Elizabeth Garrison and Lorent Wens.

In the First Baptists Church, Philadelphia, Feb 5, 1782, Allathea Garrison and Felix Winbert; Jun 28, 1800, Mary Garrison and Joseph Finour; Nov 19, 1785, Silas Garrison and Catherine Sailor. (30)

In the marriage records of the First Presbyterian Church, Philadelphia, Oct 6, 1721, Christian [sic] Garretson and Leonard Van Degrist.

In the 2nd Presbyterian Church, Philadelphia, Nov 20, 1783, Judith Garrison and John Jacquett.

In the Moravian Church, Bethlehem, Jul 29, 1758, Nicalaus Garrison and Johanna Gratia Parsons. (31)

(1) Except where otherwise indicated, all material for Appendix B has been taken from a paper supplied by a now defunct research bureau. It is realized that other references are also to secondary source material. None of the references given is questioned, and they are believed to be of value for further research.
